Slavery Excluded from the Territories

The house bill prohibiting slavery from all our territories has passed the senate, and with the President's signature will become a law. Henceforward the soil of our territories will be dedicated to free labor.

Thus, one by one, the principles contended for by republicans are becoming enacted into enduring laws.

Amendments to the Fugitive Slave

Law.

The house, yesterday, instructed the judiciary committee to report a bill amending the fugitive slave law, so as to require a jury trial in all cases where the person claimed denies under oath that he is a slave, and also requiring any claimant to prove that he has been loyal to the government during the present rebellion. This was adopted by yeas 77, nays 43. Such amendments are well, but there are several provisions in that infamous statute which would be the pruning knife; in fact the whole thing ought to be repealed.

From Gen. Halleck's Army.

Mr. T. W. Hall, of Monroe, has just returned from Corinth, bringing with him his brother, a member of the 5th Wisconsia battery, who has been very sick.

Mr. Hall says the health of our army is very bad; that there cannot be less than 10,000 of our men on the sick list, many of whom are dying. The weather there is quite hot, the water bad, and the sanitary condition of the camps deplorable. There were 30 sick in the 5th Wisconsin battery, out of 150 men. With the 8th regiment, are with Gen. Pope in the advance, 40 miles south, where a battle was expected every day. Gen. Buell has also gone south with his command.

Gen. Halleck remains at Corinth. He is very much censured by his army for not capturing Beauregard's army, which might have been done by flank movements, either to the right or to the left. The enemy's fortifications were almost impregnable in front, but on the flanks no attempt at defense was made.

It is the general opinion that many more men have been lost by disease in consequence of delay, than would have fallen in a properly arranged attack, and that great numbers in addition will be sacrificed in the hurried movements made to overtake the enemy.

The evacuation of Corinth, Mr. Hall says, was not caused by want of provisions, as large quantities were left, besides what they took away with them. It is probable that

Beauregard could not rely upon his army.

A Sensible Movement.

At least one sensible thing has been introduced into the legislature of this state.

Senator Hudd proposes to remonstrate against the bill pending in congress appro-printing a portion of the public lands in the endowment of agricultural colleges in the various states. Upon the rule proposed, 30,000 acres for each senator and representative, Wisconsin would receive 150,000 on her present representation, and if the bill should be delayed until the next session of congress, the proportion of this state will be 240,000 acres. To begin with, agricultural colleges supported by public funds or state endowments would be utter failures, only supporting "a faculty" of political aspirants and schemers in genteel indolence.

To end with, such a disposition of the public domain is altogether wrong. Why should the eastern states receive millions of acres of the best lands in the west, and keep them from actual settlers, or rob the general treasury by selling them for their own benefit? Moreover, after a long struggle the homestead principle has been at last adopted in the disposition of the public lands, and this interference with that mode of disposal should be promptly repud-icated. We should be glad to see our legislature take the right ground on this question.

The rebel general Johnston, was wounded at the battle near the Chickaha-ming, and Gen. Lee takes command in his stead. The papers at Richmond speak of the second day's fight in a way that makes them consider it a defeat.

The Jackson County, Wisconsin,

Banner says there is 100,000 acres of government land in that county, of good quality, and invites the attention of those wanting farms under the homestead act, to make selections.

Veto Sustained.—Governor Harvey's veto of the bill granting swamp lands to the counties in which they lie, has been sustained in the senate, by a vote of 17 to 11.

The resolution of the lower house of congress, authorizing the purchase of a number of sets of the annals of congress from the National Intelligencer, at an expenditure of $30,500, was voted against by Potter and Sloan, and for by Hancock from this state. It is generally esteemed as a bonus to the Intelligencer.

There is as good bread baked here as in France.

The rebel prisoners at camp Chase, Ohio, were recently discovered to have got possession in some manner of many revolvers, knives, &c., and it is supposed they were about to revolt and make their escape.

Last Night's Report.

MEMPHIS, June 7.

Since the formal surrender of the city, and the posting of pickets through the city, the excitement of the people has subsided.

All quiet during last night. The only event, this morning, is the capture of the rebel steamer Cheek, which eluded the fleet yesterday, above the city, running up a slenderly out of sight. She was brought down this morning. Nothing yet heard of the boat Van Dorn, which is the only boat of the rebel fleet that escaped yesterday.

New York, June 9.

The Fort Monroe correspondence of the Philadelphia Inquirer gives this: On board the Stepping Stone, among others who had come down with the rebel flag of truce train from Richmond, I observed Mons. J.

DePruin Keips, vice consul of the Netherlands at Charleston, and his family, and M.

Leicome De Choiseul, French consul at Charleston, accompanied by his wife, child and servant. I made inquiry as to the reason of their leaving their posts at this present moment, when they are so much needed to look after the interests of their countryman in prison, but could not obtain any satisfactory answer.

Two things are pretty certain: 1st, they did not leave the confederate ship until she was sinking; and secondly, they did not leave without instructions from their respective governments; or it may yet appear that M. Mercier's visit to Richmond had something to do with the matter.

Special to the New York Post.

WASHINGTON, June 9.

W. H. Hooper and G. C. Carmon, senators from Utah are here. A son of Brigham Young is with them on a visit.

New York, June 9.

The Richmond Dispatch, of the 6th, states that the rebel loss in the late battle, was 8,000, including five generals, twenty-three colonels, ten majors and fifty-seven captains. The Dispatch complains that the federals can at any time cut off the retail of the confederates by seizing the railroad at Petersburg, and intimates that the retreat to Lynchburg and the mountain was the only one left them.

A special from Washington says that Col.

Polk, of Tennessee, declares that the lower of Beauregard's army is at Richmond.

Halleck's IRREGULARITIES, June 9.

The federal force now occupies Baldwin, Gemtown, Jackson and Bolivar. Repairs are progressing rapidly. The enemy passed Gemtown last night, retreating southward from Baldwin. It is intimated that there are 20,000 deserters since they left Corinth, mostly from Tennessee, Kentucky and Arkansas regiments. All the regiments from those states passed down, closely guarded on both sides by Mississippi and Alabama troops. It is believed by country people that Beauregard cannot return to Columbus with the troops he brought away from Corinth. The whole country east and north of Baldwin is full of armed soldiers, returning from Tennessee and Kentucky.

Gen. Pope telegraphs from the advance that prisoners who first desired to be exchanged, now want to take the oath. The enemy drove and carried off everything for miles around. The wealthiest families are destitute and starving, women and children are crying for food, the males have been forced into the army. The enemy is reported as greatly suffering for food.

Special to the St. Louis Republican.

MEMPHIS, June 7th.

This morning the rebel tug Mark R.

Cheek was discovered up a slough above the city, where she had run for concealment, and surrendered to our tug Sampson.

Among a thousand rebel citizens left on the cars last night for Grenada, Mississippi.

The railroads have all stopped running to the city. The Memphis and Charleston railroad has been badly cut up, and all its rolling stock has been sent south. All the stock of the Memphis and Ohio roads, except three engines, is here. Great efforts are made to shield public property by private claims. About 2000 bales of cotton were burned. Colonel Thomas H. Keason was the military commandant here, but Ex senator acting Brigadier General, G. N. Fitch, of Indiana is in command of the city now.

Since the formal surrender at 3 p. m. yesterday, and the posting of pickets through the city the excitement among the people subsided and all is quiet. The new post master for Memphis is now in Cairo, and will be here soon.

[Special to St. Louis Republican.]

MEMPHIS, June 6, 4 p. m.

Just as the dispatch boat is leaving, all is quiet; all the rebel flags known to be flying in the city have been removed and no difficulties have occurred. Reports are current that Commodore Hollins, when he received news of the destruction of Montgomery's fleet, burned his vessels, four in number, where some distance below here. Over 5,000 people were killed this morning. All the news are close, but many will be opened to-morrow. The citizens seem anxious to hurry to the front. Very little trouble is apprehended in holding the city.

Large quantities of cotton were burned, but it is said there is a great amount of sugar and molasses which has been secreted by its owners, ready for shipment. One rebel regiment was stationed a mile below the city, but has disbanded and the men are now endeavoring to get home. The fleet will start at once for Vicksburg. The loss of the rebels in the engagement was upwards of 100 killed, 50 of whom belong to the gunboat Gen. Lowell.

CINCINNATI, June 9.

Special from Memphis, June 8.—Jeff

Thompson witnessed the fight, sitting on horseback. When one after another of the confederate boats sunk and the flag ship

Two thousand citizens reported themselves armed and equipped to the provost marshal the same evening to prevent destruction of property by the mob. It was expected that the city would be fired.—

Capt. Gould, provost marshal, established his headquarters in the Planter's Bank building. Col. Fitch, commander of the post, issued notice last evening that the United States had taken possession of the city for the purpose of asserting the supremacy of the laws and protecting public and private property. The mayor and common council will continue to exercise civil functions, the military authorities cooperating to enforce all proper ordinances.

At the close of another fiscal year, the trustees take pleasure in presenting the accompanying annual report, and again congratulating the members of the company on the really wonderful success of the past year. During the year we have more than doubled the number of members, have almost doubled the amount of assets, have considerably increased the per cent of premium reserve, and all this at a less ratio of expense than any other company of an equal age.

The following extract from the testimony of the insurance commissioner of Mass., (the best authority in this country) gives the most satisfactory evidence of our position and success, the first of last month:

The policy adopted and, and the success attained, seem to promise the northwest an early date, an institution which will combine all the advantages of breadth of basis and home control.

Wisconsin Life Insurance Co.

A comparison of this with the official reports of the same gentleman, and with that of the New York superintendent, shows that our ratio of assets to liabilities (the test which shows the real soundness and strength of companies, as well as individuals), is equalled by only four of all the companies doing business in these two states (comprising all the principal companies in the United States), and by none of the several new companies. Only three companies have issued more policies during the year, and the largest company in the United States has exceeded us in number issued during the last fiscal year only 130.

Legislative.—MONDAY, June 2. In the SENATE, the session was principally spent in a discussion of the bill appropriating $200 for the erection of a tombstone over the grave of the late Gov. Harvey. Senator Hopkins moved to amend by making the sum $1,000. Senator Fox supported the amendment. The bill was finally referred to a select committee, consisting of Senators Huebschman, Foot, and H. S.
